Biography

Having qualified in 1982 Shelly Bansal went on to complete his Hons.CL diploma in 1987. He was then the manager and senior contact lens practitioner at the flagship store of a leading multiple. In 1994 he opened his own independent practice. Currently the practice has a client base of over 15000 patients and 40% of the overall turnover is contact lens related.

His special interests include, myopia management, dry eye management, Orthokeratology, fitting younger patients with contact lenses, fitting multifocal contact lenses, and developing practice management strategies.

In 2007 Shelly was awarded with his Fellowship of the British Contact Lens Association. Shelly has also been a BCLA councillor and recently served as President of the organisation for 2 consecutive terms.

In 2002 his practice was nominated as a finalist in "The eye care practice of the year" and in 2003, 2004, 2008 & 2010 the practice was nominated as finalist in "Contact Lens Practice of the Year", "Technology Practice of the Year", "Marketing Initiative of the Year". In 2013, Shelly was announced as Contact Lens Practitioner of the Year in the AOP awards.

Over the years, he has presented at BCLA conference and evening meetings and has had articles published in some of the optical journals. He also lectures internationally on many contact lens topics; all based on his personal experiences in practice.
